

Hutto Citizens University

The purpose of the Hutto Citizens University is to improve citizens' understanding of municipal government and their role in the community.

To apply for the Hutto Citizens University, applicants must be at least 18 years old and demonstrate an interest in serving the city in some volunteer capacity in the future.

The applicants must commit to attend eight of the ten sessions.

Participants cannot be currently running for political office.

The Hutto Citizens University is free to eligible applicants.

Each class is expected to last at least two hours starting at 6:00 pm; meals will be provided at the beginning of each class. Several classes may run a little longer.

The following is a list of departments and services that will provide educational information to the Hutto Citizens University:

- City Administration
- Community Development
- Economic Development Corporation
- Finance and Budget
- Fire and Rescue Operations
- Information Technology
- Municipal Court
- Parks and Recreation
